You need to model your life after the life of Jesus; how He walked the earth. The world loves its own; those that are part of this system, but you, because you are no longer part of this world's system, you are an opposition to this world system; the world hates you. Be assured that the spirit that is in you is stronger than the spirit that rules this world system. You are of God and if you are of God, greater He that is in you than he that is in the world. The spirit that is in the world is subordinate to the spirit that is in you. God is stronger than evil; where sin abounds, grace is much more abounded. stronger than the evil that is in the world, stronger than the forces that you are confronting in this world system.
