The Devil Ain't Shit: I can prove it

Only because you fail, he succeeds. It is all God; “with Him, by Him and for Him”. The devil gives you nothing that you don't already have. The devil built his kingdom on your failure, a negative. This is why he is the darkness of this world, the prince of darkness. The prophetic utterances that God pronounced against you for disobeying His laws, His statutes and commandments give the devil access to you. Your failure is his success. “Cursed is the ground for thy sake; in sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life”. Because you have done that God said; it is your fault, your failure to obey Me is the reason, and the consequence of your action is responsible.

The prophetic utterances that God pronounced against us for disobeying His laws, His statutes and commandments will do what they were set out to do unless we find refuge in Him, under His wings. “Under His wing thou shalt trust” you can seek the truth and let the truth becomes your shield. “His truth shall be thy shield and buckler”. “My words shall not return void until they have accomplished that which they were sent to do”. “Here I put before you life and death, curses and blessings, choose life”; the choice is ours. Some of us are still living in biblical time, in the Genesis of time when man first sinned against God and are still under the curses and some others are now living in end time Revelation when the fulfillment of the prophecies are been accomplished. Jesus is Lord; with Him, by Him and for Him all things were made. “All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made”. In him was life; and the life was the light of men”. If you don't live the life, you cannot be in the light. It is all in the life; Lifestyle that is.

There is a lifestyle prescribed to us by Jesus that guarantees us an increase in our cognitive ability, our intuitive capacity, quickens us and makes us part of the abundant life. You do God's will and you are under God and you disobey God and you are out of His will; you are under the curse and under the devil; it is that simple. Because of your disobedience “Cursed is the ground for thy sake; in sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life; Thorns also and thistles shall it bring forth to thee”. This prophetic utterance is still true today doing what God said it will do as the day it was first pronounced. Some of us are still struggling to earn our bread, working hard and receive little, struggling all of the time. The devil will keep you under him if you don't seek God. He will trick you to sin so that he can legally keep you under him. Hell on earth is when you are out of the will of God and fall under the control of the devil.

It is all about the choices that God places before us; but some of us don't make those choices not because we don't want to but simply because we can't. WE CAN'T because we don't have enough power on our own to make those choices. We have squandered our power in vain talk, get too complacent in our routines that we have nothing left to give us the strength to choose. We need the Holy Spirit of God to help us. "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me" Michel Martelly could not pick his opponent as prime minister, not because he did not want to, but simply because he has not enough power in him to make that choice. He has squandered his resources in vain talk with his friends and now he is unable to make that simple choice. Had he invited God to give him the strength and the courage to make that choice, Haiti would already have a functional government.
